TRIED RECIPES.

Scotch Currant Bun.

Four pounds of bread dough, two pounds of seedless raisins, two pounds of currants, one pound of butter, a quarter of a pound of blanched and chopped almonds, a quarter of a pound of candied orange peel chopped fine, two ounces of chopped citron peel, one ounce of powdered cinnamon, one ounce of powdered ginger, half an ounce of powdered allspice, a quarter of an ounce of powdered cloves and one grated nutmeg. Mix the butter and the dough well together, work it in with the hands, then take one pound of the dough, roll it out on a baking board with a little flour and cut off as much as will form a top crust for the bun. Then with the other part of the pound of dough line a buttered cake tin. Now put the remaining dough into a large basin, add the fruit, almonds, peel and spices, and work well with the hands. Then fill the tin neatly, and after wetting the edge of the dough with a little water, place on the top crust and prick over the top with a fork. Bake in a good steady oven for four hours. After the top is browned brush it over with beaten egg. This will glaze it.—Ladies

Home Journal.

Pottage a la Reine.

The day before needed, place on the fire two chickens and a joint of veal covered with water; boil slowly until very tender; press through the colander and set away in a cool place until the next day. Then skim off all the fat; place on the range, gradually heat to a boiling point; just before serving add a pint of cream; season with pepper and salt; flavor with celery salt and a little onion. Serve very hot.
